

Jane C. Solberg Zimmerman 1850-1950 Lehi Centennial History

Jane C. Solberg Zimmerman (Tean), daughter of Charles and Jane Rasmussen Solberg, was born in Park City, Summit County, Utah, April 22, 1889. when eight years old she was baptized into the Mormon Church. The records lost in Park City's big fire, so she was rebaptized September 13, in Lehi.

When eleven years old she and her family moved to Leamington, Utah. When thirteen years old she was secretary for the Primary at Leamington, Utah. When fourteen years old she moved to Lehi Junction, then to Cedar Fort. In 1905, while living with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner at Fairfield, Utah, she met John W. Zimmerman. They were married in Lehi by Able John Evans, February 20, 1906. She had three sons, William Scearl, George Charles, Rolland J.

She and her family moved to Bingham for our years. While there she worked in the Primary, Sunday School, and also with the quilting committee for the Relief Society. She moved to Lehi in 1918.

When the Fifth Ward was organized she was the first Primary President serving two years, 1920,1921. Then she moved to the First Ward where she worked in the Relief Society, serving and cooking committee, also as visiting teacher. Moving to the Second Ward in 1928, she again worked in the Relief Society, on the cooking committee, also as visiting teacher.
